

Gull Point

Performing Dancers

- Gull Point Performing Dancers was founded in 1975 by Terry Dillon as a non-profit association of dancers and members that provides quality experience in theatrical dance and contributes to the cultural life of Northwest Florida. The company is an outgrowth of the fifty two-year old dance program at the City of Pensacola's Gull Point Resource Center.

-The company's mission is to increase educational and performing opportunities for our dancers. To achieve this, dancers are offered classes in a wide array of styles and travel to near-by conventions to take workshops from nationally recognized teachers. The dancers rehearse and perform year round. The company provides free or low cost dance performances for schools, festivals, and civic functions.

-Each of our dancers are required to take ballet, company, and company technique in addition to any other classes in any other style they wish to. The dancers perform throughout the year at many functions including Greater Gulf Coast Art Festival, Pensacola Downtown Christmas Parade, and VIP dance competition. If you are interested in joining our dance company please contact the Artistic Director Lisa Kilgo at lisakummer0515@gmail.com.
